

Honorable Chairman Powell and Members of the FCC:

Our democratic society is based upon the free flow of diverse ideas. While large corporate entities will inevitably be a part of that exchange, it would be undemocratic for them to monopolize it, as they are already close to doing.

I therefore urge you to retain the current ownership rules for the media - rules which serve the public while still allowing companies to do good business.

Thank you.